Annual Founders' Day: Honors With Laudable Medals

by Judy Aninarella

The Barry College community began its 25th Annual celebration of Founders’ Day today, with a High Mass. Masses were celebrated in St. Vincent’s, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, and the Barry College Chapel. At the conclusion of Mass, students, faculty, and staff attended the opening ceremony in the Barry College Auditorium. The ceremony included the presentation of awards to outstanding students, faculty, and staff.

The ceremony began with the reading of the names of the awardees, followed by the presentation of the awards. The awardees included students from various departments, faculty members, and staff members. The awards recognized academic excellence, leadership, service, and other accomplishments.

The ceremony was attended by the entire Barry College community, including students, faculty, and staff. The event was a celebration of the achievements of the Barry College community and a recognition of the contributions of its members.

The ceremony concluded with the playing of the National Anthem, and a moment of silence in memory of those who were lost.

The Barry College community is grateful for the contributions of its members and looks forward to continued success in the future.

Fall Musical "Perfidy in Auditorium"

by Lois Felker

One week from tonight, Nov. 20, "The Student of Music" will open at the Barry College Auditorium. The cast under the direction of Sr. Marie Costello, O.P. and Sr. Alina Christ, O.P. have been rehearsing for weeks, preparing for this version of their lively musical.

The little world of the dramatic department is a hectic place at this time. The players go over their parts with the stage crew, who are hammering, painting, and putting last minute fixings on props and scenery—all of this happening on stage simultaneously. Finally the songs are heard out of the other noises but once in a while a thud or a hum is heard above the noise. The stage crew must keep their eyes open, for if the effects crew is accurate—the sounds they produce are completely realistic.

Dona Gallin as Maria and Dr. Philip Stern as Captain Von Trapp rehearse one scene with one "family" of children and the next scene with the other "family." (The children's parts are double cast.)

The audience will be delighted when the "little ones" march across the stage in the "Doe-Re-Mi" number. They will surely steal the show. Especially when seven-year-old Sharon Pelkey, a second grader at St. Lawrence, clings to Denise O’Neil. Denise’s face is familiar in the Miami area since she has appeared in the last two years of annual concerts.

Jean Antinarella, a Latin major from Miami, has been here for two years. She was accepted as a member of Barry College’s Latin Honor Society. Jean was elected to Lambda Sigma, an honor society for Latin students.

Elizabeth ‘Liz’ Jordan, nursing major and Student Council president, is a member of the Barry College Honor Society. Liz has been a member of Student Council for three years. She is an active member of the Barry College Latin Honor Society.

MaryAnne Loder, president of the Student Council, is a member of the Barry College Honor Society. MaryAnne has been a member of Student Council for two years. She is a member of the Barry College Latin Honor Society.

The National Student Association. It is run by students and its programs are voted on by students. And no one on campus, except a few elected officers, functions, and its programs. Traditionally the vice-chairman out of ten will answer in terms of "yo no se". The tenth will be the president. The president of the N.S.A. is you. The national organization is a union of students run by and students who have joined the union by paying membership dues, and meeting certain obligations. And, in the words of the N.S. A. committee from Trinity College, Wallingford, D.C. the National Student Association is for you—it can help you, your organization, and your campus. We hope that some of us here at S.A. offices will help inform you of the organization which it is.

Services for All Organization

1. The National Student Congress is held each summer and lasts for about ten days. The Congress sets policy for N.S.A. and considers a great variety of student-related problems and issues.

2. N.S.A. Area Conferences: These provide opportunities for sharing students' experiences and ideas with students from other colleges.

3. The Student Body Presidency Conference: Conferences are held three times a year. The conference is held to discuss issues and problems of importance to all areas of student life, this service can supply material on many issues of interest to your organization.

Some examples are:

- Student leadership
- Student government regulations
- Campus communications
- Community service
- Financial aid
- Digests
- Elections
- Enrolment orientation
- Literature from the N.S.A. are "stashed away" in the SC office. Some are kept in the office for general information, and others are kept for specific topics. These can supply films and tapes for a reasonable price.

Publications

There is information available through N.S.A. for almost any campus conference or project, and magazines are sent on request to interested students who are eligible to receive them. Federal Aid to Education, Academic Freedom, and AID to Colleges should be ordered in advance.

Conferences

Conferences are held for all S.A. area presidents, for directors of N.S.A. areas, for directors of N.S.A. regions, and for students of all areas of student life, this service can supply material on many issues of interest to your organization. The neighbors across the hall topped it off by introducing something from Orwell. We went around asking people "Have you ever seen a dead donkey?" If you could have known, we looked around, nodded wisely, and said, "Not one of us ever has ever even seen a dead donkey," which is why we're living in a paradise right off the road. With these comments, we leave the readers.
The song of life spread itself throughout the papers last summer. What seemed at first to be just the common run-of-the-mill song of man, it was the song of man's life, the song of the human condition is that one of openness to people. There is certain reflection that a man and woman must walk through the world, where the bell tolls it tolls for all.

Each individual approaches the issue of human involvement, reacting to the song and to the background of his own personality, his wishes, his own fears and rationalizations.

Thanksgiving Day:
A Time to Share

It is Thanksgiving Day. You are lying on the bed in your room. The scent of the food wafts through the air, the aroma of the turkey fills the room, and the sound of the television is in the background. The day is perfect.

As you leave your room and go down to dinner, you think of the times you have spent with friends. You remember the day you graduated from high school, the day you moved out of your parents' house, the day you got married. Each one of these memories brings a sense of joy to your heart.

European Job?/

Grand Duke of Luxembourg — is the monarch of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, a small country located in Western Europe. The Grand Duke is the head of state and holds the executive power. The Grand Duchess is the head of government. The Grand Duke is also the spiritual head of the Luxembourgish Roman Catholic Church. The Grand Duke is elected by the National Assembly, which is the unicameral legislative body of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

You have a job in Luxembourg. The job involves working in the Grand Duke's office. You will be responsible for handling correspondence, scheduling appointments, and preparing documents. You will also be required to maintain the Grand Duke's records and files.

The job is a great opportunity for anyone interested in working in a European government. The Grand Duke's office is located in the heart of the European Union, and you will have the opportunity to work with many different people from different countries.

Wages range from $600 to $1,200 per month, depending on experience. The starting salary for new employees is $700 per month. The job requires some travel, and you will be expected to work on weekends.

Who Enters

The National Assembly of Luxembourg is the legislative branch of the Luxembourgish government. It is composed of 69 members, who are elected by the people of Luxembourg. The Assembly meets every two years, and it has the power to introduce and pass legislation, as well as to approve the budget.

A new group, Delta Sigma Omega, was established to guide the various activities of the club bulletin board. The club bulletin board is a place where students can find information about events and activities on Barry's campus.

Mary Turner and Maryanne Manegold were elected as chairwoman and vice-chairwoman, respectively. They will be responsible for managing the club bulletin board and ensuring that it is updated regularly. They will also be responsible for distributing the bulletin board to all members of the club.

The club bulletin board is a valuable resource for students, as it provides information about events and activities on Barry's campus. Students can use the bulletin board to plan their schedules, participate in events, and stay informed about the latest news.

In such discussion, students may be required to present their own ideas, and they are expected to discuss and consider the contributions of others. The discussion is open to students, faculty, and staff, and it takes place in a group setting, the opportunity has been mine to touch that which would whisper...

Ground Is Broken
For Barry College
In Miami Shores
Will Be First Catholic College in State of Florida
School Named in Honor of Bishop of St. Augustine

Bishop Barry

It was the desire of Bishop Patrick Barry that Florida have a Catholic college for women. This dream was realized through his efforts and those of his co-founders.

Patrick Barry was born in Wexford, Ireland, in 1860. The future Bishop of the Diocese of St. Augustine was one of a family of 18 children. He studied in France and Ireland and was ordained in 1885.

The Reverend Father Barry came to Florida in 1885. He was first assigned as assistant pastor at the Church of the Immaculate Conception in Jacksonville. There, he enlisted the help of volunteer chaplains during the Spanish-American War.

In 1905, Father Barry was appointed rector at Palatka, a mission station in central Florida. Ten years later he was appointed pastor of the new parochial of Assumption in Jacksonville. In 1917, he was called to St. Augustine and made Vicar-General of the Cathedral. He was appointed Bishop by Pope Pius XI on February 22, 1922.

Bishop Barry was responsible for the establishment of hospitals, an orphan home, and a mission church for Catholic Negroes in Florida. He also financed and published the newspaper of the Augustine diocese.

Mary Milkowski, physical education, and Mr. John G. Thompson, law.

The first unit in Barry College’s plan to develop its physical properties was added with the completion of the blue-tiled swimming pool, seventy-five feet by thirty. Located behind the freshman and sophomore dormitories, the pool is situated in what will eventually be the center of a dormitory quadrangle. Five swimming lanes, lined in deck blue tile, and two regulation diving boards, one ten-foot and one fourteen-foot, make the pool ideal for intercollegiate competition. Behind the diving platforms is an elevated stage and patio. Ample dressing and shower accommodations are provided in a bath house which is situated on the east side of the pool.

Opportunity for Scholarship

Two national scholarships for college seniors are offered for 1965-1966 by the Katharine Gibbs School. These awards were established in 1951 as a memorial to Mrs. Katharine Gibbs, founder, and first president of the School. Each scholarship consists of full tuition for one semester in the Katharine Gibbs School. The winners may select any one of the four Gibbs schools for their training—Boston, New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia.

Winners are chosen by the Scholarship Committee on the basis of academic excellence and character qualifications, financial need, and personal qualifications. Each scholarship is renewable for two years.

Each college or university may receive only one application, but any student who can demonstrate genuine enthusiasm for the study of French can enter with as much hope of being considered as can any student of equal ability.

The Katharine Gibbs School, 1616 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, Massachusetts 02215, is a non-profit institution sponsored by the Daughters of St. John of God. The school is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, and by the American Council of Education. The school is also accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges.

Soc Majors Intern Now

During the months of October and November, the school's 10 major clubs and organizations are preparing for their fall season with the aim of developing a community of spirit among their members. They are taking advantage of the opportunity to develop new memberships, and to attract new members to their respective clubs.

Among the groups that are currently active are the following:

The French Club: The French Club is one of the oldest and largest clubs on campus, with over 200 members. It is open to all students, regardless of their language proficiency. Guests at FMC

These members of the Barry College department of English and two students in Lambda Iota Tau, Pi Chi charter, attended the initiation of the Alpha Omega Chapter of the society at St. Augustine on December 28.

Lambda Iota Tau (LIT) is an international honors society for students of literature.

Sister Robert Louise, O.P., Sister Thomas Catherine, O.P., Mrs. Virginia Gellett, secretaries Janie Conlan and Eevna Laska were given a reception by faculty members that included a tour of the Alpha Omega chapter room in the Barry English department.

During the assembly honoring the Alpha Omega Chapter charter members, Dr. Caeli, faculty advisor, introduced the Barry English department, delivered an address on the motto of LIT, Legos Ideae Tela, "The Word Given Form to the Idea."

Four students at Florida Memorial, a Negro college only recently integrated, gave the chapter requirements of a 3.0 cumulative average and a 3.5 average in at least 12 hours of literature and submitted a critical paper on a work of literature.

Barry followed the assembly.

Furnishing Ideas

Show Individuality

by Gaiusina Misaniara

A swatch of material, a small cutting of rug, an old head board, a section of drapery, and a leather chair may be the materials by which three dimensional room exhibits are built.

The room concept of a house plan and room plans drawn to scale, the basis upon which the furniture is designed and in which the arrangement is unique in itself per arrangement of the room. In each exhibit a bright period paper will accent the greens in the room. And in another on old head board was used to prop up a colonial atmosphere.

These exhibits are displayed on the first floor of Calaroga Hall, which be the first time be used as a display-play and drama classroom for the fine art form.

Student Poets

Barry College students - graduate or undergraduate, part or full time — and Barry College faculty and staff, are invited to participate in the Student Poets contest.

Contest Deadline: the first line of the poem.

The winners will be published in the campus literary magazine, in the poetry. The judge will be announced later.

Recognizing endavours in literature and art, Orike will also come poetry, essays, short stories, abstracts of literary research papers and novel, short stories, and essays in French, Spanish, Italian, and Latin, and Spanish poems and prose, and Barry students are invited to submit projects in sculpture, painting, and drawing in the fine art form.

Entries should be addressed to The Class Bethany Young, Poetry Contest, Editor of Orike, Box 128, Barry College.

The contest awards are made available through the generosity of Mrs. Vivian Lowrey Rounds in honor of her mother.

Winning poems will be published in Orike, the campus literary magazine, in the poetry. The judge will be announced later.

Students and faculty may submit short stories and poetry or questions in the Class Bethany Young, Orike editor. Deadline for material is January 15, 1965.
