BARRY COLLEGE MIAMI, FLORIDA, FEBRUARY 11, 1966

Vol. XXV

BARRY COLLEGE MIAMI, FLORIDA, FEBRUARY 11, 1966

No. 4

The annual Leadership Development Conference, sponsored by the Student Council, is slated to begin Wednesday, March 7 at 11 a.m. with the theme, "Value of a Leadership Experience," is the theme for this year's conference.

Each year this conference examines and discusses different aspects and types of leadership in hopes that more women aware leaders will be developed.

In the past, the conference has chosen these themes as leadership development: Christian Commitment, Woman's Awareness of the social, economic and political role of women, and the载体 of leadership awareness will be developed.

The closing program will be on Wednesday at 11 a.m. and a prominent member of the Miami community will speak on the value of leadership in various community projects.

Mrs. Marie Orylon, O.P. is scheduled to discuss the conference with a speech on March 2.

Thurday evening at 7:00 p.m. there will be a dance sponsored by the Barry Corporation entitled "The Choice I Made" which depicts world leaders.

Monday, March 7 at 7 p.m. the Inter-Club Council will discuss leadership in the community and the benefit of participation in such projects as Youth Hall, CCD, the Interfaith Project, and work with refugees and migrant workers.

Tuesday evening at 7:00 p.m. a panel of three Biscayne boys and three Barry girls will discuss the value of leadership in various community organizations.

"Women's Challenge to Greatness" is the theme of Barry's first Student Council Conference for March 19. Women from 40 institutions of higher learning in the state of Florida are invited to send delegates to attend this all day event. The purpose of the conference is to discuss women's new, peculiar role in the world today and the challenges they must face: intellectual, moral, and social.

The schedule for this month's retreat is not definite at this time, however, it will be released to the student body when it is available.

Conference Provides Media For Discussion On Women's Position

By Wendy Goodridge

Can you imagine the feeling of standing at the Door to the Pearly Gates and being suddenly accepted? Or that you are a cherry on top of a hot fudge sundae? Maybe you've thought you were Alexa, the famous shoe designer, going boom, boom, boom, down the drain.

In case these statements aren't very clear, maybe this one will help: Happiness is . . . getting mail.

As of this past Christmas vacation, Barry has also contributed to this program. Mr. Vincent Powers in conjunction with the Viet Nam Catholic Student Association contacted Barry with the hope of obtaining the aid of two Vietnamese students-Mary Van and Mary Rose Tu. The two students were invited by Mr. Powers to offer leadership in a conference that they would later work in this hemisphere and hoped that their desire would help their country.

But, a letter is still a letter, no matter if it is written with ink, crayon or lipstick smeared by the precious melted snow. A letter has the same message, even if you have to read it upside down, with a mirror.

A completely different world is opened when you open a letter.

"Who Is Sylvia?"

Mail Mailed To "Miss Matutina"

By Wendy Goodridge

The letters of encouragement from many colleges and universities have been overwhelming. Deans from several universities have written that the conference and theme were "vital" and "timely."

A very generous Peter Cottontail has left a basket of brightly colored eggs by extending our Easter greetings to us all. Thanks, Sister Dorothy and the administration!!

"Strings" Sound New Note

By Juliana Lopez

"Strings" and Orchestra, a unique and exciting symphony of sounds will capture the Barry College audience on Feb. 13, when they will present their musical potpourri.

Launching his career at 20 as the youngest member of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Clebanoff rose quickly to the title of the Illinois Symphony and Orchestra, a position he still holds.

With a feeling of self-creativity, a spark of ingenuity and an abundance of talent, Clebanoff conceived an instrumental ensemble which in size and type of music, created a unique sound.

The Clebanoff Sinfonietta, developing into the Clebanoff Strings, is now fully off Strings and Orchestra in size and scope. It consists of 15 instrumentalists, 15 strings, accordeon, piano, harp and percussion.

The public has received this new program with great interest and instantaneous approval. Clebanoff presents his listeners with a thrilling, dynamic concert which is sure to appeal to every listener. The performance will include: Sarabanda, Giga e Do, Jeannie with the Light Brown Hair, Sunrise Sunbeam and Havanafella.

"Women's Challenge to Greatness" is the theme of Barry's first Student Council Conference for March 19. Women from 40 institutions of higher learning in the state of Florida are invited to send delegates to attend this all day event. The purpose of the conference is to discuss women's new, peculiar role in the world today and the challenges they must face: intellectual, moral, and social.

Mary Rich Van

"Who Is Sylvia?"

Mail Mailed To "Miss Matutina"

By Wendy Goodridge

Can you imagine the feeling of standing at the Door to the Pearly Gates and being suddenly accepted? Or that you are a cherry on top of a hot fudge sundae? Maybe you've thought you were Alexa, the famous shoe designer, going boom, boom, boom, down the drain.

In case these statements aren't very clear, maybe this one will help: Happiness is . . . getting mail.

As of this past Christmas vacation, Barry has also contributed to this program. Mr. Vincent Powers in conjunction with the Viet Nam Catholic Student Association contacted Barry with the hope of obtaining the aid of two Vietnamese students-Mary Van and Mary Rose Tu. The two students were invited by Mr. Powers to offer leadership in a conference that they would later work in this hemisphere and hoped that their desire would help their country.

But, a letter is still a letter, no matter if it is written with ink, crayon or lipstick smeared by the precious melted snow. A letter has the same message, even if you have to read it upside down, with a mirror.

A completely different world is opened when you open a letter.

"Who Is Sylvia?"

Mail Mailed To "Miss Matutina"

By Wendy Goodridge

Can you imagine the feeling of standing at the Door to the Pearly Gates and being suddenly accepted? Or that you are a cherry on top of a hot fudge sundae? Maybe you've thought you were Alexa, the famous shoe designer, going boom, boom, boom, down the drain.

In case these statements aren't very clear, maybe this one will help: Happiness is . . . getting mail.

As of this past Christmas vacation, Barry has also contributed to this program. Mr. Vincent Powers in conjunction with the Viet Nam Catholic Student Association contacted Barry with the hope of obtaining the aid of two Vietnamese students-Mary Van and Mary Rose Tu. The two students were invited by Mr. Powers to offer leadership in a conference that they would later work in this hemisphere and hoped that their desire would help their country.

But, a letter is still a letter, no matter if it is written with ink, crayon or lipstick smeared by the precious melted snow. A letter has the same message, even if you have to read it upside down, with a mirror.

A completely different world is opened when you open a letter.

"Who Is Sylvia?"

Mail Mailed To "Miss Matutina"

By Wendy Goodridge

Can you imagine the feeling of standing at the Door to the Pearly Gates and being suddenly accepted? Or that you are a cherry on top of a hot fudge sundae? Maybe you've thought you were Alexa, the famous shoe designer, going boom, boom, boom, down the drain.

In case these statements aren't very clear, maybe this one will help: Happiness is . . . getting mail.

As of this past Christmas vacation, Barry has also contributed to this program. Mr. Vincent Powers in conjunction with the Viet Nam Catholic Student Association contacted Barry with the hope of obtaining the aid of two Vietnamese students-Mary Van and Mary Rose Tu. The two students were invited by Mr. Powers to offer leadership in a conference that they would later work in this hemisphere and hoped that their desire would help their country.

But, a letter is still a letter, no matter if it is written with ink, crayon or lipstick smeared by the precious melted snow. A letter has the same message, even if you have to read it upside down, with a mirror.

A completely different world is opened when you open a letter.

"Who Is Sylvia?"

Mail Mailed To "Miss Matutina"

By Wendy Goodridge

Can you imagine the feeling of standing at the Door to the Pearly Gates and being suddenly accepted? Or that you are a cherry on top of a hot fudge sundae? Maybe you've thought you were Alexa, the famous shoe designer, going boom, boom, boom, down the drain.

In case these statements aren't very clear, maybe this one will help: Happiness is . . . getting mail.

As of this past Christmas vacation, Barry has also contributed to this program. Mr. Vincent Powers in conjunction with the Viet Nam Catholic Student Association contacted Barry with the hope of obtaining the aid of two Vietnamese students-Mary Van and Mary Rose Tu. The two students were invited by Mr. Powers to offer leadership in a conference that they would later work in this hemisphere and hoped that their desire would help their country.

But, a letter is still a letter, no matter if it is written with ink, crayon or lipstick smeared by the precious melted snow. A letter has the same message, even if you have to read it upside down, with a mirror.

A completely different world is opened when you open a letter.
Hi! I'm writing my last column three months sooner than I had planned. As a result, I've had to ask students to work overtime. In the past, I've been happy about this, but others who read the column don't, Sr. Ruth Albert (formerly of Barry faculty, now Dean of St. Dominic College in St. Charles, Missouri) has been opposing it to the public relations and development department of that school, an offer I accepted with alacrity.
Peloquin Dedicates Anniversary Mass
Selected members of Barry's Tara Singers and 20 men from Boston College will form the choir for a Mass to be sung in the old cathedral in St. Augustine, Fla., in celebration of the 400th anniversary of that city.

Music for the Mass to be celebrated Mar. 9, was composed by Alexander Peloquin, who dedicated his composition to the Tara Singers and their director, Sr. Arlene Christa, O.P.

The combined choir will be accompanied by selected members of the Jacksonville Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. Peloquin first became acquainted with the Barry music department during the summer of 1965. He was guest conductor of the Tara Singers' Spring Concert last year which included one of his works, "Hymn of Triumph."

Soph Wins Vice-Presidential Post in State MENC
Celene Denbroucki, a sophomore music major, is the newly elected vice-president of the Florida Chapter of the Music Educators' National Conference.

The president of Barry's MENC is Donna Miller and the moderator is Sister Alma Christa, O.P. This month the members of the Barry chapter will attend a lecture on Renaissance and medieval music presented by Mr. Arnold Grayson at his recorder workshop. They also attended the Landelle Trivette harpsichord lecture-concert.

The last item on the agenda was one of particular interest to students. Sr. M. Arnold read a proposal by Ofelita Schutte, Sodality president, to include a course in "The Little Prince" and movie projectors for school functions by ushering, to maintain friendly relations between the college and the general public.

Although the proposal and Ofelita's presentation of it were well received, it was suggested that further queries of this nature come through the department involved.

A proposal by Sr. Clifford of the Business Education Department was the first item considered. Sister recommended the offering of a B.S. degree for a four-year program and office administration. While the proposal was well received, some limitations were suggested. By vote of the committee, the proposal will now be sent to the Administration for further deliberations and action.

The committee then discussed the present departmental divisions.

The last item on the agenda was one of particular interest to students. Sr. M. Arnold read a proposal by Ofelita Schutte, Sodality president, to include a course in "The Little Prince" and movie projectors for school functions by ushering, to maintain friendly relations between the college and the general public.

Although the proposal and Ofelita's presentation of it were well received, it was suggested that further queries of this nature come through the department involved.

A proposal by Sr. Clifford of the Business Education Department was the first item considered. Sister recommended the offering of a B.S. degree for a four-year program and office administration. While the proposal was well received, some limitations were suggested. By vote of the committee, the proposal will now be sent to the Administration for further deliberations and action.

The committee then discussed the present departmental divisions.

The last item on the agenda was one of particular interest to students. Sr. M. Arnold read a proposal by Ofelita Schutte, Sodality president, to include a course in "The Little Prince" and movie projectors for school functions by ushering, to maintain friendly relations between the college and the general public.

Although the proposal and Ofelita's presentation of it were well received, it was suggested that further queries of this nature come through the department involved.

A proposal by Sr. Clifford of the Business Education Department was the first item considered. Sister recommended the offering of a B.S. degree for a four-year program and office administration. While the proposal was well received, some limitations were suggested. By vote of the committee, the proposal will now be sent to the Administration for further deliberations and action.

The committee then discussed the present departmental divisions.

The last item on the agenda was one of particular interest to students. Sr. M. Arnold read a proposal by Ofelita Schutte, Sodality president, to include a course in "The Little Prince" and movie projectors for school functions by ushering, to maintain friendly relations between the college and the general public.

Although the proposal and Ofelita's presentation of it were well received, it was suggested that further queries of this nature come through the department involved.
Children's songs came to life in the music class which Marianne Bianchi conducted at Amelia Earhart Elementary School. The class was part of Marianne's internship in music education. A voice major, Marianne will present her senior recital on February 20, at 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium.

Sr. Agnes Louise Continues Study

Sister Agnes Louise attended a seminar at Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, Oak Ridge, Tennessee, from January 19 through February 4. The course offered at this year's seminar was Radiotopes in Research. The seminar teaches scientists, technicians, and engineers how to handle radiotopes safely and efficiently in their own fields. Lectures were given on radiation detection, instrumentation, nuclear theory, and principles and practices of a variety of radiotopes applications.

Sister is working with lysosyme-resistant mutants on a research grant from the National Institutes of Health. Lysozyme, an enzyme, is found in many body secretions. It destroys some forms of bacteria yet other forms of bacteria are resistant to it. This is one of the reasons why Sister was at Oak Ridge.

“At Oak Ridge I tried to unravel the reason why some bacteria become resistant to the action of this natural chemical in the body.”

Sister hopes that her findings in the study of bacteria mutants and enzyme differences will give answers to some of the research problems in microbiology.

Sister Marie Carolyn O.P., Chairman of the graduate division and professor of history at Barry, has been elected President of the American Catholic Historical Association. She was elected by the organization’s more than 1,000 members in a write-in ballot. Among Sister’s endeavors is the publication of the Catholic Historical Review. One of Sister’s duties as Vice-President will be acting as Advisory Editor on this publication.

Second semester seems to be the busy season for the Madrigal Singers. On February 2, the group, along with two drama students who gave readings, appeared at the West Country Club to sponsor the Jewish Women’s Club for Brotherhood Week. On February 26 and on March 5, the Madrigal Singers will perform in a pageant on the history of Italy by illustrating music from the age of the Italian Renaissance. This pageant will be sponsored by the Dante Alighieri Society. Excerpts of the music from the Renaissance will be performed in the spring concert at Barry.

Participants in the Fiesta of Boca Raton, February 18 will be Barry students from Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Colombia, Chile, and Cuba. The girls, Martha and Ana Maria Canochez, Roberto Rodri-guez, Antonio Gonzalez, Mario Gonzalez, and Rodrigo Gonzalez dressed for the occasion, but one of the performers had to machine her own dress-alike twin, Julie Santa Maria, and Irma Hernandez, will model their native costumes in a fashion show complete with commentary.

On Monday, March 7, at 7 p.m., in the traditional assembly in honor of the feast day of St. Thomas Aquinas will be held. Sr. Agnes Cecile, O.P., of the philosophy department, is coordinating the presentation.

"Add Nothing - Take Nothing Away" is the topic of discussion sponsored by the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine on March 12 at 3:00 p.m.

On February 22, "Lost For Life", the life of one of the master painters of modern times, will be presented in the Barry auditorium.

For the Man in Your Life

A Gift from

Paulsen's

Is Sure to Please

SHERIES JEWELERS

Forest Selection of JEWELS & WATCHES and OTHER NAME BRANDS

Jewelry and Watch Repair

on premises

Phone Plaza 4-3313

Plaza 1-9300

9150 N. E. 2nd Avenue

579-4545

"CLOTHES THAT LEAD THE LIFE YOU LOVE"